From Saturday April 4, to Tuesday April 7, 1801.

Admiralty-Office, April 7, 1801.

Copy of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Duckworth, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at the Leeward Islands, to Evan Nepean, Esg; dated Martinique, 16th February 1801.

HAVING learnt, from the Arrival of the Calmight be foon expected, I dispatched all the Squadron within my reach to cruife to Windward of Barbadoes for its Protection, which has eventually proved fortunate; for the Particulars respecting it I shall refer you to Captain Bradby's Letter of the Oth Instant, herewith transmitted; as also to the Letters of Captain Manby, of the Bourdelois, of the 16th of January and 2d of this Month, on which he writes most fully. I must be g you to call the Attention of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty to the meritorious Conduct of Mr. Burrowes, Commander of the Ship Jupiter, bound to Jamaica, who, after he had loft Convoy, collected more than Sixty Sail, and made fuch a Difposition of the largest Ships for the Protection of the Whole, as evidently deterred the fmall Squadron afterwards brought to Action by the Bouydelois, from attacking them; and by that judicious and public-spirited Step, all but those which branched off for Surinan, &c. arrived fase at Barbardoes.

I am, &c. J. T. DUCK WORTH.

Extract of a Letter from Captain Bradby, Commander of His Majesty's Ship Andromeda, to Rear-Admiral Duckworth, dated Martinique, the 6th of February 1801.

E Nelofed are Two Letters from Captain Manby to me, from which the Service he has rendered to the different Islands, by destroying a Squadron fent out by Victor Hughes , for the Interception of the outward bound Conv oy, fpeaks for itself.

His Majelly's Slov op Bourdelois, January SIR, 16, 180 1, off Tencriffe.
N the 8th Instant, off P dua, in a Calm, I difpatched Two Boats un der the Orders of Lieutenant Barrie, in Pursuit of a strange Sail in the S. E.; after a fatiguing R ow of Fourteen Hours, Lieutenant Barrie, at Two, P. M. with only one Boat being up with the Chafe, boarded her with great Gallautry, although opposed by Ten Frenchmen, who kept up a Imart Fire from Four Four-Pounders; the proved to be the Adventure of London, one of the Convoy which had parted Company in the first Gale of Wind; the French Prize-Master was wounded by a Cutlass, the only Blood fpilt on the Occasion.

Gaining Information from the Adventure, that on the fame Day fie was captured by the Mouche Privateer, of Bourdeaux; the Mouche likewife cap-tured a valuable Copper-bottomed Ship, bound to Barbadoes, and as both Veffels had Orders to proceed to Santa Cruz, in Teneriffe, I confidered it my Duty to push for that Port, and by plying hard with the Sweeps all the 9th, I arrived off Santa Cruz on the Morning of the 10th, when I had the pleasing Satisfaction of rescuing the abovementioned British Ship from the France of Proved to be the Aurora of Loudon.

1 have the Honor to be, &c. &c. T. MANBY.

His Majefly's Ship Bourdelois, Carlifle-Bay, Barbadoes, February 1, 1801.

HREE Days ago, being on the Station you ordered me to cruife for the Protection of our feattered Convoy, I acquaint you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that at Roon Three Sail were deferied to Windward evidently in chafe of us, which I foon difcovered to be an Enemy's Squadron, confifting of Two large Brigs and a Schooner:—having shortened Sail, enabled them to be well up with us at Sunfet, when I were round to give them Battle; at Six I had the Honor of bringing the largest Brig to close Action at about Ten Yards Distance, but was not so fortunate with the other Vessels, who fought very fly on the Occasion, on observing we were enabled to fight both Sides at once; Thirty Minutes of close Carronade with my near Opponent completely filenced him, when he hailed that he had struck, and lowered his Topfails, when his Companions made Sail from us: but I think I can fafely aver they are fufficiently damaged to fpoll their Cruite. My First Lieutenant, Mr. Robert Barrie, on taking Possession of the Prize, found her to be a remarkable sine French National Corvets, called La Curieuse, pierced for Twenty Guns, but only Eighteen long Nine-Pounders mounted, One Hundred and Sixty-eight Men, and commanded by Captain G. Radelet; fent out from Cayenne Twenty-eight Days ago by Victor Hughes with this Squadron to intercept the outward-bound Well India Fleet. With real Concern I acquaint you that we had One Man killed and Seven wounded in the Action; but from the Abilities and Attention of Mr. G. Roddam, my Surgeon, I truft the latter are likely to do well: Lieutenant Barrie forms One of the Number, but difdained to quit his Quarters. Mr. J. Jones, Mafter's Mate, and Mr. J. Lions, Midhipman, are included in this Lift.

The Killed and Wounded in the Corvette amounted to near Fifty, her Deck, fore and aft, being covered with the dying and the dead. The French Captain furvived but a few Hours, having loft both his Legs, and many of the Prisoners were in an equal pitiable State.

A melancholy and painful Task is now imposed on me to relate the fad Catastrophe attending this Capture, which, after being more than an Hour in our Possession, was found to be rapidly tinking, in consequence of her innumerable Shot Holes: every Exertion was made to preferve her; but, alas! at Eight she foundered close beside us. I had, some Time previous to this Event, ordered every Body to quit her; but British Humanity, while striving to extricate the wounded Frenchmen from Destruction, weighed fo forcibly with Mr. Archibald Montgomery and Twenty brave Followers, that they perfevered in this meritorious Service until the Veffel funk under them. The floating Wreck, I rejoice to fay, buoyed up many from Destruction; but with Sorrow I mention Mr. Frederick Spence and Mr. Auckland, Two promising young Gentlemen, with Five of my gallant Crew, unfortunately perished. The Delay occasioned by this unhappy Event, securing One Hundred and Twenty Prisoners, knotting the Rigging, and repairing Sails, detained me until Eleven before I could purfue the flying Enemy, which, I affure you, was done with all Alacrity, but without Success, as the Night favoured their Elcape.

I cannot conclude this Account of my Proceedings without informing you how highly I approve of the Conduct of Licutenant Robert Barris, Licute naut James Alexanter Gordon, Mr. MacCleverty the Mader, and Mr. Montgomery, my Acting Licutenate Information of the Mader, and Mr. Montgomery, my Acting Licutenate Information of the Mader, and Mr. Montgomery, my Acting Licutenate Information of the Mader, and Mr. Montgomery, my Acting Licutenate Information of the Mader Infor tenant.

The Proceedings of Warrant and Petty Officers gave me every Satisfaction; and I have not Words to offer fufficiently in the Praife of the Ship's Company for their fleady Obedience to my Orders in not walking a fingle Shot; I trust it will not be deemed too affuning in my recommending my First Lieutenant Mr. Robert Barrie to the Notice of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty as an Officer highly worthy of Advancement.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c. (Signed) T. MANBY.

N. B. Allow me to fubjoin the Statement of the Enemy's Force, and to mention, that the only Capture made by this Squadron was the Sufan Brig, of Halifax, bound to Surinam, which they burnt.

La Curieufe, of 390 Tons, 18 Nine-Pounders, 168
Men, not Two Years old, with 34 Feet Beam, and 90 Feet Keel, commanded by Captain George Radelet.

La Mutine, of 300 Tons, t6 long Six Pounders, 156 Men, commanded by Captain J. Raybaun. L'Efperance Schooner, mounting 6 Four Pounders, 52 Men commanded by Captain Haymond. J. T. DUCKWORTH.

Whitehall, March 31, 1801.

Whereas it has been humbly repreferred to the King, that an anonymous Threatening Letter has been addressed to Mr. Richard Fenkins, Silversphills, North-Street, Exeter, of which the following is a Copy, viz.

Sir Exeter 21 March 1801—

—Let the Rich ye lowest slave distain:
He's equally a Link of Nature's Chain:
Labours to ye same End, joins in one View;
And both alike ye will divine pursue;
And at the last, are levelled, Kings and Slave
Without distinction in one filent Grave.

I prefume you are not unacquainted, of the meeting of a Great number of the injured poor inhabitants of this once happy City, & the great reason there is for a redress of their prefent miserable hate, come forward as a Man and a good Magistrate; and let the World see that you are not that selfish cynic in heart, that your former conduct have made you appear to be. ——Depend upon it that if there is not some redress & that speedily, the consequences will be dreadfull, as wee are resolved, nor can wee any longer support ourselves and Families.

Therefore it is better to Die like Men than any longer to hear ye cries of our llarving Children for Bread, when thro' the villainy of a few defigning Men, who for the fake of a little paltry Gold) hath in the midft of Plenty advanced the prices of every necessary Article of Life to such an enormous price, that we are unable to purchase them.—

We have waited with the greatest patience for redress, without effect, & are now Determined to redress outselves.—we fear not the Soldiers, neither the Volunteers (vulgarly termed the Farmers Bull-Dogs,) they are our Friends, Brothers, and Fellow sufferers,—we know the principal Villains in our neighbourhood, & are determined to be revenged.—

Fire and Sword, is the word, and by the Almighty God they shall not escape our vengeance, we have cried unto Man in vain, we have now appealed unto God, who both inspired us with the just means of revenging ourse as take care of your-felf & let Hen unings, Drake, & all the other crew of enormous en grossing Villains of Millers, Graziers, & Farmers, know their Danger, that they may repent before it is too late, for without a great Alteration in yours & their conduct, they will son appear before the great tribunal of God, to answer for the miseries they have brought upon Thousands of unhappy objects.

Call your Fellow Citizens together & endeavour to avert the Storm which fo heavily hangs over this unhappy country is the wish of your Friends

Mr Richard Jenkins Silversmith Northstreet Exeter.

His Majefly, for the better apprehending and bringing to Juffice the Perfons concerned in writing and fending the Letter above mentioned, is bereby pleafed to promife this most gracious Parlen to any of them fexcept the Perfon who adually wrote the faid Letter,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, fo that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convided thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered be the Chamber of the City of Exeter, to any Person make ing fuch Discovery as aforefaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders.

SIR.

T is with Satisfaction I enclose to you, for the Information of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a Letter which I have this Day received from Lieutenant Irwin, commanding the Stag Hired Cutter, acquainting me with his having, Yesterday Evening, captured the French Privateer Le Poisson Volant, of Fourteen Guns, and manned with Fifty-five Men; and that he had also recaptured a Brig, her only Prize fince she last failed from Dieppe.
I am, &c.

SKEFF. LUTWIDGE,

His Majesty's Hired Cutter Stag,

Dozons, April 10, 1801. Have the Honor to acquaint you that, Yesterday at Six P. M. Beachy-Head bearing North Ten or Eleven Leagues, we faw a Lugger and Brig on our Weather Bow, and immediately gave Chafe to them, and at Half past Seven captured them both. The Lugger is called Le Poiffon Volant, a French Privateer belonging to Boulogne, commanded by Citizen Jacque Antoine Hedd, carries Fourteen Carriage Guns and Fifty-five Men; had been out Four Days from Dieppe, and captured only the Brig above-mentioned. On the Cruife before the captured Six Velfels, Four of which have been recaptured.

The Privateer had Two Men killed and Four wounded. I am, &c. &c.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Sie Edward Hamlen, of His Majefly's Ship Trent, in Cawfund Bay, the 7th April 1801, to the Right Honorable Lord Ame-lius Beauclerk, Captain of His Majefly's Ship For-

IN Obedience to your Signal, the Chace was continued until Dark, at which Time being becalmed among the Rocks of the Ifles of Inchat I anchored, and the next Morning, (the 3d Inflant,) observing a large Ship with French Colours, under the Protection of a Cutter and Lugger Privateers, making Sail with the Flood from the Anchorage of Brehat to Plampoul, the Boats were immediately dispatched under the Command of Liente-Chamberlayne, having under his Orders Mr. Scallon, Second Lieutenant; Mr. Bellamy, Third; Mr. Holkins, Master; and Mr. Taite, Marine Officer, &c. &c.; the Enemy scemed, at fall, determined to refift and defend their Veffels, and fent many Boats from the Shore to their A fiffance, who, with the Lugger, took the Ship in Tow, but on the very fpirited and near approach of the Trent's, the Lugger and Boats call off the Tow, and after maintaining a fevere Confl.o, aided by a continued Fire from Five Batteries, they were at length Subdued and chased on the Rocks; after which the Ship, in the Face of open Day, was mod gal-lantly boarded by the First Lieutenant and Marine Officer, who, I am forry to fay, has loft his Right Leg, and the very meritorious and spirited Zeal with which all the Officers and Men were animated on this Enterprise, reflects on them the highest Honor.

The Ship appears English built, about The GITCHIN Hundred Tons, with a Cargo of Corn, and various THRE other Acticles, but not having made any Prifonce farther Particulars are unknown.

Enclosed I return you a Lid of Kill-day Wounded; that of the Enemy could not be exact afcertained; Two were killed on board the Sh and feveral were drowned; the State of the P

Easterly, I judged it prudent to put into this Place.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 15, 1801.

Admiralty-Office, April 15, 1801.

APTAIN OTWAY, of His Majesty's Ship the London, arrived in Town this Morning with Dispatches from Admiral Sir Hyde Parker, Commander in Chief of a Squadron of His Majesty's Ships employed on a particular Service, to Evan Nepean, Efq; dated on board the London, in Copenhagen, Roads, the 6th Inflant, of which the following are Copies:

YOU will be pleafed to acquaint the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that tince my Letter of the 23d of March, no Opportunity of Wind offered for going up the Sound until the 25th, when the Wind shifted in a most violent Squall from the S. W. to the N. W. and North, and blew with fuch Violence, and with fo great a Sea, as to render it impossible for any Ship to have weighed her Anchor. The Wind and Sea were even so violent as to oblige many Ships to let go a fecond Anchor to prevent them from driving, notwithflanding they were riding with Two Cables an End; and, by the Morning, the Wind veered again to the Southward of the Weit.

On the 30th of last Month the Wind having come to the Northward, we passed into the Sound with the Fleet, but not before I had affured myfelf of the hotile Intentions of the Danes to oppose our Paffage, as the Papers marked No. 1, 2, 3, and 4, will prove; after this Intercourse, there could be no Doubt remaining of their Determination to relift.

After anchoring about Five or Six Miles from the Island of Huin, I reconnoitred, with Vice Admiral Lord Nelfon, and Rear-Admiral Graves, the formidable Line of Ships, Radeaus, Pontoons, Galleys, Fire-Ships, and Gun-Boats, flanked and supported by extensive Batteries on the Two Islands called the Crowns; the largest of which was mounted with from Fifty to Seventy Pieces of Cannon; thefe were again commanded by Two Ships of Seventy Guns, and a large Frigate in the Inner Road of Copenhagen and Two Sixty-four Gun Ships; (without Masts) were moored on the Flat, on the Starboard Side of the Entrance into the Arfenal.

The Day after, the Wind being Southerly, we again examined their Position, and came to the Refolution of attacking them from the Southward.

Vice-Admiral Lord Nelfon, having offered his Services for conducting the Attack, had, fome Days before we entered the Sound, shifted his Flag to the Elephant; and after having examined and buoyed the Outer Channel of the Middle Ground, his Lordfhip proceeded with the Twelve Ships of the Line named in the Margin*, all the Frigates, Bombs, Fire-Ships, and all the fmall Veffels, and that Evening anchored off Draco Point to make his Disposition for the Attack, and wait for the Wind to the Southward.

It was agreed between us, that the remaining Ships with me thould weigh at the fame Moment his Lordship did, and menace the Crown Batteries, and the Four Ships of the Line that lay at the Entrance of the Arfenal; as also to Cover our disabled Ships of the Artenat; as also to Cover our disabled Ships as they eame out of Action.

I have now the Honor to enclose a Copy of Vice Admiral Lord Nelson's Report to me of the Action on the 2d Instant. His Lordship has stated fo fully the Whole of his Proceedings on that Day, as only to leave me the Opportunity to telisty my entire Acquiescence and Tellimony of the Bravery and Intrepidity with which the Action was supported throughout the Line. ported throughout the Line.

* Elephant, Defiance, Monarch, Bellona, Edgar, Rusfell, Ganges, Glatton, Itis, Agamemnon, Polyphemus, Ardent.

Was it possible for me to add any Thing to the well-earned Renown of Lord Nelson, it would be by afferting, that his Exertions, great as they have heretofore been, never were carried to a higher Pitch of Zeal for his Country's Service.

I have only to lament that the Sort of Attack, confined within an intricate and narrow Paffage, excluded the Ships particularly under my Command from the Opportunity of exhibiting their Valour; but I can, with great Truth affert, that the fame Spirit and Zeal animated the Whole of the Fleet; and I trust that the Contest in which we are engaged, will, on fome future Day, afford them an Occasion of shewing that the Whole were inspired with the same Spirit, had the Field been sufficiently extensive to have brought it into Action.

It is with the deepest Concern I mention the Loss of Captains Mosse and Riou, Two very brave and gallant Officers, and whose Loss, as I am well informed, will be sevisibly selt by the Families they have lest behind them; the former a Wise and Children, the latter, an aged Mother.

From the known Gallantry of Sir Thomas Thompson on former Oceasions, the Naval Service will have to regret the Lofs of the future Exertions of that brave Officer, whose Leg was shot off.

For all other Particulars I beg leave to refer their Lordships to Captain Otway, who was with Lord Nelfon in the latter Part of the Action, and able to answer any Questions that may be thought necessary to put to him. A Return of the Killed and Wounded you will receive herewith.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

H. PARKER.

P. S. The Promotions and Appointments that have taken Place on this Oceasion will be fent by the next Opportunity that offers; but I cannot close this without acquainting their Lordships, that Captain Mosse being killed very early in the Action, Lieutenant John Yelland continued it with the greatest Spirit and good Conduct; I must, therefore, in Justice to his Merit, beg Leave to recommend him to their Lordships' Favor.

No. I.

London, in the Categat, 27th March 1801. FROM the hostile Transaction of the Court of Denmark, fending away His Britannie Majenty's Charge d'Affaires, the Commander in Chief of His Majelly's Fleet is anxious to know what the Determination of the Danish Court is, and whether the Commanding Officer of Cronenberg Caille has received Orders to fire upon the British Fleet as they pass into the Sound, as he must deem the firing of the first Gun a Decharation of War on the Part of Denmark.

(Signed) HYDE PARKER.

TRANSLATION, No. II. ANSWER.

Cronberg, March 28th. IN Answer to the Admiral's honoured Letter, I have to inform him, that no Orders are given to fire on the English Fleet; an Express is gone to Copenhagen, and should any Orders he sent, I shall immediately fend an Officer on board to inform the Admiral.

(Signed) STRICKER, Governor. TRANSLATION, No. III.

Cronberg Caftle, 28th March, 1801. IN Answer to Your Excellency's Letter, which I did not receive till the following day, at Half past Eight, I have the Honour to inform you, that His Majesty the King of Denmark did not fend away the Charge d' Assaires, but that upon his own-Demand he obtained a Pafiport.

As a Soldier I eannot meddle with Politicks, but I am not at Liberty to fuffer a Fleet, whose Intention is not yet known, to approach the Guns of the Castle which I have the Honour to command.

In ease Your Excellency should think proper to make any Proposals to His Majesty the King of Denmark, I wish to be informed thereof, before the Fleet approaches nearer to the Castle. explicit Answer is defired.

STRICKER. (Signed.)

Answer.

On board the London, 29th March SIR, 1801. One A. M.

IN Answer to your Excellency's Note just now received, the Underligued has only to reply, that, finding the Intentions of the Court of Denmark, to be hostile against His Britannie Majesty, he regards the Answer as a Declaration of War, and therefore, agreeable to his Instructions, can no longer refrain from Hostilities, however reluctant it may be to his Feelings: but at the same Time will be ready to attend to any Proposals of the Court of Denmark for reftoring the former Amity and Friendship which had for so many Years subfished between the Two Courts.

H. PARKER. (Signed)

His Excellency the Governor of Cronberg-Caftle.

Elephant, off Copenhagen,

SIR, 3d April, 1801.

N Obedience to your Directions to report! the Proceedings of the Squadron named in the Margin *, which you did me the Honor to place undermy Command: I beg Leave to inform you that having, by the Affifiance of that able Officer Captain Riou, and the unremitting Exertions of Captain Brisbaue, and the Masters of the Amazon and Cruizer, in particular, buoyed the Channel of the Outer Deep, and the Position of the Middle Ground, the Squadron passed in Sasety, and an-chored off Draco the Evening of the First; and that Yesterday Morning I made the Signal for the Squadron to weigh, and to engage the Danish Line, confishing of Six sail of the Line, Eleven Floating Batteries, mounting from Twenty-fix Twenty-four Pounders, to Eighteen Eighteen Pounders, and one Bome Ship, helides Schooner Gun-Veffels.

These were supported by the Crown Islands, mounting Eighty-eight Cannon, and Four Sail of the Line moored in the Harbour's Mouth, and fome Batteries on the Island of Amak.

The Bomb-Ship and Schooner Gun-Vessels made their Escape, the other Seventeen fail are funk,

Line to the Southward of the Crown Islands, after a Battle of Four Hours.

From the very intricate Navigation, the Bellona and Ruffel unfortunately grounded, but although not in the Situation affigued them, yet fo placed as to be of great Service. The Agamemnon could not weather the Shoal of the Middle, and was obliged to anchor; but not the fmallest Blame can be attached to Captain Fancourt; it was an Event to which all the Ships were liable. Thefe Accidents prevented the Extension of our Line by the Three Ships before mentioned, who would, I am confident, have filenced the Crown Islands, the Two outer Ships in the Harbour's Mouth, and prevented the heavy Lofs in the Defiance and Monarch, and which unhappily threw the gallant and good Captain Riou, (to whom I had given the Command of the Frigates and Sloops named in the Margin *, to affift in the Attack of the Ships at the Harbour's Mouth) under a very heavy Fire; the Confequence has been the Death of Captain Riou, and many brave Officers and Men in the Frigates and Sloops.

The Bombs were directed and took their Stations abreast of the Elephant, and threw some Shells into the Arfenal.

Capt. Rofe, who volunteered his Services to direct the Gun Brigs, did every Thing that was pof-fible to get them forward, but the Current was too strong for them to be of Service during the Action, but not the less Merit is due to Capt. Rose, and, I believe, all the Officers and Crews of the Gun Brigs for their Exertions.

The Boats of those Ships of the Fleet, who were not ordered on the Attack, afforded us every Affistance; and the Officers and Men who were in them, merit my warmest Approbation.

The Defiree took her Station in raking the Southermost Danish Ship of the Line, and performed the greatest Service.

The Action began at Five Minutes past Ten. The Van, led by Capt. Ge rge Murray of the Edgar, who let a noble Example of Intrepidity, which was as well followed up by every Captain, Officer, and Man in the Squadron.

It is my Duty to state to you the high and distinguished Merit and Gallantry of Rear Admiral

To Captain Foley, who permitted me the Honor of hoisting my Flag in the Elephant, I feel under the greated Obligation; his Advice was necessary on many and important Occasions during the Battle

I beg Leave to expr fs how much I feel indebted to every Captain, Officer, and Man, for their Zeal and dillinguished Bravery on this Occasion. The Ho-norable Colonel Stewart did me the Favor to be on board the Elephant, and himfelf, with every Officer and Soldier under his Orders, shared with Pleafure the Toils and Dangers of the Day.

The Lofs in fuch a Battle has naturally been very heavy. Amongst many other brave Officers and Men who were killed, I have with Sorrow to place the Name of Captain Mosse, of the Monarch, who has left a Wife and Six Children to lament his Loss; and, among the Wounded, that of Captain Sir Thomas B. Thompson of the Bellona. I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

Extrast of a Letter from Admiral Sir Hyde Parker, strate of a Letter from Manural Str. Hyple Parker, Commander in Chief of His Majeffy's Ships and Viffels employed on a particular Service, to Evan Nepean, Eff; Savietary of the Admirally, dated on board. His Majeffy's Ship London, in Copulagen-Road, the 9th April 1801.

SIR, THE Honorable Licuteum Cosses by being the having volunteered his Services by being the Bearer of these Dispatches, I have accepted thereof, on a Belief that it will be more empeditious than by I have the Phainre to transmit an Armidica concluded between the Court of Denmark and myfiff.

I mean, as foon as the disabled Ships are resitted, and the worlt of the Wounded moved into the Holftein Danish Ship of the Line, which I have commissioned as an Hospital Ship, to proceed over the Grounds into the Baltic to put into Execution the remaining Part of my Instructions.

The Isis and Monarch being found in so bad a State from the late Action, as to render it necessary to fend them to England to have their Damages repaired, I shall fend them Home for that Purpose with the Holstein Hospital-Ship, which has the ' Wounded and Sick on board.

The Danish Government on the one Hand, and Admiral Sir Hyde Parker, Knight, Commander in Chief, of His Britannie Majelty's Naval Forces is the Road of Copenhagen on the other, being, from Motives of Humanity, equally anxious to put a Stop to the further Effusion of Blood, and to fave the City of Copenhagen from the difastrous " Confequences which may attend a further Profecution of Hostilities against that City, have mutually agreed upon a Military Armistice or Sufpenfion of Arms. His Daniih Majerly having for that Purpose ap-pointed Major-General Ernest Frederick Walterftorff, Chamberlain to His Danish Majesty, and · Colonel of a Regiment, and Adjutant-General Hans Lindholm, Captain in His Danish Majesty's Navy, his Commissioners for agreeing about the Terms of the faid Armiflice, and Admiral Sir Hyde Parker, Knight, having, with the fane View duly authorifed the Right Honorable Ho-ratio Lord Nelson of the Nile, Knight of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Duke of Bronte in Sicily, Knight of the Grand Crofs of the Order of St. Ferdinand and of Merit, and of the Imperial Order of the Crefcent, Vice-Admiral in the Fleet of His Britannic Majefly, and the Honorable William Stewart, Lieutenaut-Colonel in His Britannie Majetty's Service, and Member of Parliament, and commanding a De-tachment of His Britannie Majetty's Forces emharked; these faid Commissioners have met this Day, and having exchanged their respective Powers have agreed upon the following Terms:

Art. I. From the Moment of the Signature of this Armistice, all Höstilities shall immediately cease between the Fleet under the Command of Admiral Sir Hyde Parker, and the City of Copenhagen, and all the Armed Ships and Veffels of His Danish Majelly in the Road of Harbour of that City, as likewife between the different islands and Provinces of Denmark, Jutland, included.

Art. II. The armed Ships and Vessels belonging to His Danish Majetby, shall remain in their present actual Situation as to Armament, Equipment, and hostile Position; and the Treaty commonly under-stood as the Treaty of Armed Neutrality shall, as far as relates to the Co-operation of Denmark, be fuspended, while the Armiftice remains in force.

On the other Side, the Armed Ships and Veffels under the Command of Admiral Sir Hyde Parker, shall in no Manner whatsoever molest the City of Copenhagen or His Danish Majesty's Armed Ships and Vessels on the Coasts of the different Islands and Provinces of Denmark, Jutland included; and in order to avoid every Thing which might otherwife create Uneafiness or Jealousy, Sir Hyde Parker shall not suffer any of the Ships or Veffels under his Command to approach within Gun-Shot of the Armed Ships or Fort of His Danish Majetty's in the Road of Copenhagen : this Restriction shall not however extend to Vessels necessarily passing or repassing through the Gaspar, or King's Channel.

Art III. This Armilice is to protect the City of Copenhagen, as also the Coalts of Denmark, of Jutland, and Islands included, against the Attack of any other Naval Force which His Britannie Majesty may now or hereafter, during its remaining in Force, have in these Seas.

Art. IV. The Fleet of Admiral Sir Hyde Parker shall be permitted to provide itself at Copenhagen, and along the Coasts of the different Islands and Provinces of Denmark and Jutland included, with every Thing which it may require for the Health and Comfort of its Crews.

Art. V. Admiral Sir Hyde Parker shall fend on Shore all fuch Subjects of his Danish Majesty as are now on board the British Fleet under his Command, the Danish Government engaging to give an Acknowledgment for them, as also for all such Wounded as were permitted to be landed after the Action of the 2d lustant, in order that they may be accounted for in favour of Great Britain, in the unfortunate Event of the Renewal of Hostilities.

Art. VI. The Coasting Trade carried on by Denmark, along all such Parts of her Coast as are included in the Operation of this Armiflice, shall be unmolefied by any British Ships or Vessels whatever; and Inftructions given accordingly by Admiral Sir Hyde Parker. Art. VII. This Armillice is to continue uninterrupted by the contracting Parties for the Space of fourteen Weeks from the Signature hereof, at the Expiration of which Time, it shall be in the Power of either of the faid Parties, to declare a Ceffation of the same, and to recommence Hostilities, upon giving fourteen Days' previous Notice.

The Conditions of this Armiflice are upon all Occasions to be explained in the most liberal and loyal Manner, so as to remove all Ground for future Disputes, and facilitate the Means of bringing about the Restoration of Harmony and good Understanding between the two Kingdoms.

In Faith whereof, we the underlighted Commif--fioners, in virtue of our full Powers, have figued the prefent Armistice, and have affixed to it the Seal of our Arms.

Extracti of a Le ter from Ciptain Dixon, Commander of Mis Majefly's Ship Governos, to Evan Nepears Effy; dated at Port Mahon, the 16th Ultimo?

TEREWITH I have the Honor to transmit Copies of Letters relative to the Capture of the Freuch Frigate L'Africaine by Captain Barlow, of His Majerty's Ship Phabe.

Genereux, Port Mahon, March 10, 1801.

MY LORD, Have the Satisfaction to enclose a Letter from Captain Barlow, of His Majesly's Ship Phæbe, for your Lordship's Information.

This very gallant and well-fought Action, as related fully in Captain Barlow's Letter, and much more strongly marked in the Hull of the French Ship, warrants me in faying, that more Skill or effective Gunnery were never displayed in any Combat than in the present Instance.

I have the Honor to be, My Lord, &c. &c. &c. MANLEY DIXON.

Right Honorable Lord Keith, K. B. ರೇ. ರೇ. ರೇ.

Phabe, at Sea, Twenty Leagues East of MY LORD, Gibraltar, Feb. 20, 1801. Have the Honor to inform your Lordship that, Yesterday about Four o'Clock in the Asternoon, His Majesty's Ship under my Command being about Two Leagues to the Eastward of Gibraltar, I difcovered One of the Enemy's Ships under Ccuta, steering with a Crowd of Sail to the Eastward: I had the good Fortune to bring her to a close Ac-tion about Half past Seven the same Evening, which continued within Pistol-Shot with unremitting Fury about Two Hours, the Enemy resolutely opposing the animated and skilful Exertions of my brave Officers and Men, until his Ship was almost a Wreck, Five Fect Water in her Hold, her Guns dismounted, and literally encumbered with Dead, the Number of which amounted to Two Hundred, and of Wounded, to One Hundred and Forty-

She proves to be the French Frigate L'Africaine, of Forty-four Gans, viz. Twenty-fix Eighteen-Pounders on her Main-Deck, and Eighteen Nine-Pounders on her Quarter-Deck and Forceastle, a very fine Ship about Three Years old, under the Orders of the Chief of Division Saunier, whose broad Pendant was flying, and who, (with maily principal Officers both of the Troops and of the Marines,) was flain in the Action, and commanded by Captain Magendie, who is amongst the Wounded.

At the Commencement of the Action she had Seven Hundred and Fisteen Men; viz. Four Hundred Troops and Artificers of various Descriptions, under the Command of General Desfourneaux, and a Crew of Three Hundred and Fifteen Officers and Seamen; also Six Brass Field-Picces, several Thoufand Stand of Arms, Ammunition, and Implements of Agriculture. She sailed from Rochefort on the 13th Instant, in Company with a Frigate, from which she parted on the following Day in a Gale of Wind.

So tremendous and decifive has been the Effect of the Fire of the Phoebe in this Contest, that I must regret the Inability of my Pen to do Justice to the Merits of those who directed it. It has been my Duty on a former Occasion to report to their Lordfaips the meritorious Conduct of my First Lieute-nant, Holland, and the Lieutenants Bedford and Heywood; Lieutenant Weaver of the Marines; Mr. Griffiths the Malter; the Warrant and Petty Officers, and the Whole of the Ship's Company, are entitled to all the Commendation in the Power of their Commander to bestow.

My Satisfaction in relating comparatively the small Loss we have sustained, is more easily imagined than described, as it amounts only to One Seam an killed, Two Officers and Ten Seamen wounded; our Damages are chiefly in Masts, Yards, Sails, and Rigging, the greatest Part of which are rendered unserviceable.

I enclose a Copy of the French Commander's Report of the Number Killed and Wounded on board L'Africaine, with the Names of the Officers;

I have the Honor to be, My Lord, &c. &c. &c. (Signed) ROBERT BARLOW. To Admiral the Right Honorable Lord Keith, Ge. Ge. Ge. Mediterranean.

Lift of Killed and Wounded on board His Majefly's Ship Phabe, in the Action with the French Frigate L'Africaine on the 19th February 1801.

Samuel Hayes, Scamen, killed.
2 Officers and 10 Scamen, wounded.

Names of Officers wounded, but fince recovered. Lieutenant Holland and Mr. Griffiths, Master.

BY Disparches received from Lord Elgin, dated Confuntinople, March 31, it appears that his Lordship had received Letters from Lord Keith, flating that the Army under the Command of Sir Ralph Abercrombic effectuated a Landing on the 8th Inflant, on the Peninfula of Aboukir, under a very heavy Fire from Cannons, Mortars, and Mufketry, the Enemy having withdrawn the whole Garrifon from Alexandria, and many Detachments from the Vicinity to oppose them; that after making the necessary Preparations on the 9th, 10th, and 11th, the Army advanced on the 12th to within Five Miles of Alexandria; they there took a Position with their Right towards the Sea, and their Left supported by the Lake Maddie, where Sir Silders Smith, who was nothed these with his Com-Sidney Smith, who was posted there with his Command of Boats, was keeping up a Communication with the Natives, and supplying the Army with with the Natives, and inpplying the Army with fresh Provisions and Water; that on the 13th, at Seven in the Morning, the Enemy made an Attack, and were repulsed with Loss about Eleven; in the mean Time the Marines bad been difembarked, and attacked by Land the Caftle of Aboukir, the only Post in that Peninfula occupied by the Enemy; that on the 14th, at Sunfet, when the Veffel which brought this Intelligence was under weigh, the Troops on Shore and the Gun Veffels were throwing Shot and Shells into Aboukir, and at the same Moment a Firing was heard towards Alexandria, which appeared from the Fou-droyant to be a general Attack.
The Grand Vizier had marched forward from Jaffa, on the 25th February, having, according to Major Holloway's Letters to Lord Elgin, received a confiderable Reinforcement.

Admiralty-Office, April 28, 1801. Copy of a Letter from Admiral Milbanke, Commander in Chief of His Majefly's Ships and Veffels at Portfmouth, to Ewan Nepean, Lfg; dated the 24th Inflant. SIR, Beg you will please to lay before their Lordships the Two Letters enclosed, which I have received from Lieutenant Talbot, of the Sheerness Hired Cutter, and Lieutenant Morris, of the Lady Charlotte Hired Brig, giving me an Account of their Success in capturing a French Lugger Privateer, and in recapturing Five Vessels which the had taken, I am, &c. M. MILBANKE.

His Majesty's Hired Armed Cutter Sheer-SIR, ness, at Sea, 21st April 1801. Have to inform you, that I weighed from Wey-mouth Roads at Five A. M. Yesterday, on secing the Signal for an Enemy on Portland, in Company with His Majesty's Armed Brig Lady Charlotte; saw the Lugger Privateer Le Prefect de la Manche, Captain Le Froment, mounting Sixteen Two-Pounders, manned with Forty-nine Men, to the Westward, and her Prize to the Southward; as it was nearly calm I judged I should not come up with her; went in Chace of her Prize; fent the Mate in the Gig, who, at Seven P. M. boarded her near Alderney. She proves the Soker Schooner of Colcheder, in Ballatt. This Morning, at Half pail Ten, I discovered the Lugger and Four Sail to the Wellward; Lieutenant Morris, of the Lady Charlotte, used every Exertion, and was successful in recapturing them:—at Half past Two 1 haled the Lugger, and, as he would not bring to, fired feveral Shot at him, when, after carrying away feveral of her Sails, the struck without firing at us.

Lieutenant Morris will inform you of the Particulars of his Recaptures. I am concerned to have to state One Englishman was killed, and One wounded in the Cabin of the Lugger. The good Conduct of Mr. James Bellard, Mate, I beg Leave to point out, who has on all Occasions conducted himself to my Satisfaction. I shall, on my Arrival at Plymouth, to which Port, the Wind being Easterly, I judged it prudent to put into, use every Exertion to put to Sea, and sollow the Orders you have given me. I am, &c. J. H. TALBOT. To Mark Milbanke, Ffg; Admiral of the White, Sc. Ge. Sc.

Ilis Majesty's Hired Brig Lady Charlotte, SIR, Plymonth-Sound, April 22, 1801. Beg Leave to inform you, that on the 20th In-itant, at Six A. M., I weighed from Portland. Roads, (the Sheerness Cutter in Company,) on the Signal being made for an Enemy on the Coaft: I flood to the Southward with the above Cutter, having Information of a Schooner in that Quarter, which a Privateer had captured that Morning. At Six P. M. on the 21st she was recaptured by the Boat of the Sheerness: on the 22d, at Two P. M., being then between Portland and the Berry-Head, I observed a Lugger to Windward, to which the Sheerness gave Chace, and, I am happy to say, captured after a running Fight of Half an Hour: from my Situation, being little Wind, I was unable to affift the Cutter in her Capture, I therefore fent my Boats in Chace, to the Westward, of Three Brigs and a Sloop, which they recaptured. They had been captured in the Morning by the Lugger which the Sheerness took; but from the People on board them making their Efcape in their Boats on the Approach of ours, I was unable to obtain their Names and Cargoes, except one, which is the Generous Friends, a Brig of about Two Hundred Tons, with a Cargo of Lead.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c. Admiral Milbanke. GEORGE MORRIS.

Downing-Street, May 3, 1801.

THE following Copy of a Letter from Lieute-nant-General Sir Ralph Abercromby, K. B. to the Earl of Elgin, together with Difpatches from His Lordship to His Royal Highness the Duke of York and Lord Hawkelbury, and a Letter from Colonel Anstruther to Colonel Brownrigg, of which the following are Extracts, have been this Day received.

Copy of a Letter from Sir Ralph Abercromby to the Earl of Elgin, dated Camp before Alexandria, 16th March 1801.

MY LORD.

N the 1st Instant the Fleet arrived in Sight of Alexandria; on the 2d it anchored in Aboukir Bay; the Weather did not permit any Debarkation before the 8th; on that Day it was happily effected, under the most trying Circumstances. The Boats had near a Mile to row, and were for fome Time under the Fire of Fifteen Picces of Artillery, and the Musquetry of Two Thousand Five Hundred Men; still the Intrepidity of the Troops overcame every Difficulty. We took Eight Picces of Cannon.

On the 9th, the Remainder of the Army was anded. On the 12th, we marched forwards to within Two Leagues of Alexandria, and One League of the Enemy, who were advantageously posted on a Ridge, with their Right to the Canal of Alexandria, and their Lest to the Sea. On the 13th, we moved forwards to attack the Enemy, and to turn their Left. They did not, however, wait, but came down and attacked us. The Action was warm; but the Enemy were everywhere forced under the Walls of Alexandria. Our Lofs is confidetable. Although Colonel Erstine is wounded, he is doing well. He has lost a Leg. His Regiment gained great Credit, but suffered severely. No Officer of Rank is killed or dangerously wounded. Excuse this Scrawl, written on my Knee.

R. ABERCROMBY.

Extraït of a Letter from the Earl of Elgin to His Royal Highnefs the Duke of York, dated Constan-tinople, April 4, 1801.

A S Colonel Anstruther's Letter to me, which accompanied that to Colonel Brownrigg, was written on the 16th of March, I take the Liberty of adding to your Royal Highness, that Menou having with 2000 Cavalry joined the Corps at Alexandria, attacked Sir Ralph Abercromby on the 21st. The Assault was vigorous; but the Enemy were entirely repulfed with great Lofs, not however before Sir Ralph Abercromby, General Moore, General Hope, and Sir Sidney Smith, had been wounded flightly, and Colonel Abereromby had loft a Limb. Colonel

Lord Keith's last Letter fays all the wounded are furprifingly well, confidering they are all by Cannon or Grape Shot. I may add, that my Janiffary, who left Rhodes on the 27th, mentions, that some of the Troops who came there first, or had been left fick, were already fo well as to have failed from thence to Paget appears to have had a flight Wound.

Nothing could have been more brilliant than our Operations appear to have been.

Extract of a Letter from Lord Elgin to Lord Hawkefbury, dated Confiantinople, April 14, 1801.

Have the Happiness of informing your Lordship, that I have this Moment received an Express from Rhodes, dated 27th March, with a Scries of private Accounts, of the successful Progress of Sir Ralph Abercromby's Army.

It appears that Menon must have fet out from Cairo, on the First Intelligence of Sir Ralph Abercromby's Landing. Meanwhile our Army had advanced (under Circumftances far too honourable for the British Arms, for me to attempt relating on the imperfect Details I possess), and had taken Post within Three Miles of Alexandria, where they had prepared against an Attack from Menou, who, with

Two Thousand Cavalry, having formed a Junction I with the Garrison of Alexandria, came against our Army on the 21ft.

In this Action we have to regret about Five Hundred Men killed and wounded; while the Enemy positively lost Two Thousand Men killed and wounded, and Five Hundred taken Prisoners. On the preceding Wednesday, Aboukir Cassle surrendered, and the British and Turkish Flags were slying

Extract of a Letter from Colonel Anstruther to Colonel Brownrigg, dated Camp near Alexandria, 16th March 1801.

THE Fleet failed from Marmaxie on the 22d February, and anchored in Aboukir Bay on the 2d March. From that Day to the 7th, the Weather was 60 boilerous, and the Swell fo great, that it was impracticable to difembark. This Circumstance gave the Enemy full Leifure to collect Troops and Artillery, and to make every necessary Preparation to oppose us. The whole Infantry of the Garrison of Alexandria, Three Hundred Cavalry, and Fourteen or Fifteen Pieces of Cannon, were placed on a Space of little more than Two Miles, from near the Callle of Aboukir to the narrow Ishmus, which forms the Boundary of the Lake. Such was the Situation in which we found Things, on the Morning of the 8th, when the Defcent was made. Nothing, I believe, ever exceeded the Boldness and Perseverance with which the Boats continued to approach the Shore, under a Shower of Bullets, Shells, and Grape. Every Difcharge was answered by a Shout from the Scamen, and all feemed totally insensible of Danger. The Referve on the Right formed as if on the Parade, and in a Moment carried a Height nearly equal to, and very like to, that of Camperdown. The Left were charged by the Cavalry, the Moment they got out of the Boats. However, they drove every Thing before them; and in the Course of Three Quarters of an Hour, the Enemy was completely beaten, with the Loss of Half his Artillery. After a Halt of Two or Three Hours, in order to difembark Ammuni-tion, and Part of General Coote's Brigade, which had not been landed, the Army advanced about Four Miles, where we remained till the 12th; the landing of Provinous and Stores being much impeded by the boilerous Weather.

On the 12th, we again marched about Five Miles, constantly skiemishing with the Advanced Guard of the Enemy, who had received a Reinforcement of Two Half-Brigades of Infantry, and One Regiment of Cavalry, from Cairo. We halted, for the Night, about Three Miles from the Enemy's Polition, which feemed and proved very advan-

Next Morning the Army moved to attack the Right of it, marching by Lines from the Left: the Referve covering the Movement, and moving parallel with the first Fire. As the Columns advanced into the Plain, the Enemy attacked the Heads of both with all his Cavalry, fupported by a confiderable Body of Infantry, and Ten or Twelve Pieces of Cannon. This Attack was repulied by the Advanced Guard (the 90th and 92d), both of which behaved most nobly. The First Line then formed Two Lines to the Front of March, the Flanks of which were protected by the Referve, and continued to advance in that Manner, whilft the Second Line continuing still in Column (excepting the First Brigade of it), turned the Enemy's Right, and forced him to quit his Position. The Army followed in the Order above stated, and Sir Ralph had given Orders for renewing the Attack on the Heights close to the Town, to which the Enemy retreated; but on ex-amining them with Attention, it was thought that they were under the Guns of the Forts, and could not probably be kept if carried; the Army took up in the Evening the Ground which the Enemy had quitted,
The Force the Enemy opposed to us appeared about Five Thousand Infantry, Six Hundred Ca-valry, and a large Proportion of Artillery; the Ground being particularly favourable to the Two last. The Movements, although under a constant Connonade, were regular and accurate: The General, in this last Action, had his Horse shot under

The Position we occupy is good; it cuts off the Communication between Alexandria and the Nile, excepting through the Defert: Our Supplies are conveyed by Means of the Lake with Eafe and Security.

Downing-Street, May 9, 1801.

DISPATCH addressed to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, of which the following is a Copy, was this Day received at the Office of the Right Honorable Lord Hobart, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from General Sir Ralph Abercromby, K. B. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Troops serving in the Mediterranean.

> Camp before Alexandria, March 16, 1801.

A LTHOUGH it was not originally my Intention to have commenced the Operations of the British Army in Egypt on the Side of Alexandria, yet Circumstances arose which induced me to change my Opinion. We were much longer delayed on the Coaft of Afia Minor, than we had at first any Reason to apprehend; and we were ultimately obliged to fail from Marmarice in a very imperfect state of Preparation. I am fully sensible of the Exertions of His Majesty's Ambassador at the Ottoman Porte, as well as of the Quarter-Mafter-General, and the other Officers who were fent forward to provide for the Necessiais of the Army. Our Delays originated from other Causes. For a considerable Time previous to our failing the Weather was extremely boilterous, and the Winds contrary. The Moment that it became practicable to fail with so large a Fleet, Lord Keith put to Sea; we left Marmarice on the 22d of February, and came in Sight of Alexandria on the 1st of March.

On the 2d, the Fleet' anchored in Aboukir Bay. Until the 7th the Sea ran high, and no Difembarka-tion could be effected; on that Day every Arrange-ment was completed, and on the 8th, the Troops forming the First Division, confishing of the Referve under the Command of Major-General Moore, the Brigade of Guards, under the Honourable Major-General Ludlow, and Part of the First Brigade, under the Command of Major-General Coote, got into the Boats early in the Morning; they had, in general, from Five to Six Miles to row, and did not arrive at the Point of Landing till Ten o'Clock. The Front of Difembarkation was nar-row, and a Hill, which commanded the Whole, feemed almost inacceffible. The Enemy were fully aware of our Intention, were in Force, and had every Advantage on their Side. The Troops, however, notwithstanding their being exposed to a very fevere Cannonade, and under the Fire of Grape-Shot, made good their Landing, afcended the Hill with an Intrepidity fearcely to be paralleled, and forced the Enemy to retire, leaving behind him Se-ven Pieces of Artillery and a Number of Horfes.

The Troops that afcended the Hill were the 23d Regiment and the four Flank Companies of the 40th, under the Command of Colonel Spencer, whose Coolness and good Conduct Major-General Moore has mentioned to me in the highest Terms of Approbation. It is impossible to pass over the good Order in which the 28th and the 42d Kegiments landed, under the Command of Brigadier General Oakes, who was attached to the Referve under Major-General Moore; and the Troops in general loft not a Moment in remedying any little Diforder which became unavoidable in a Landing under fuch Circumítances. The Difembarkation of the Army continued on that and the following Day,
The Troops which landed on the 8th advanced three Miles the fame Day; and on the 12th the whole Army moved forward, and came within Sight of the Enemy, who was formed on an advantageous Ridge, with his Right to the Canal of Alexandria, and his Left towards the Sea.

It was determined to attack them on the Morning of the 13th; and in consequence the Army marched in two Lines by the Left, with an Intention to turn their right Flank.

The Troops had not been long in Motion before the Enemy descended from the Heights on which they were formed, and attacked the leading Brigades of both Lines, which were commanded by Major-General Cradock and Major-General the Earl

The 90th Regiment formed the Advanced Guard of the front Line, and the 92d that of the second; both Battalions suffered confiderably, and behaved in such a Manner as to merit the Praise both of Courage and Discipline. Major-General Cradock immediately formed his Brigade to meet the Attack made by the Enemy; and the Troops changed their Polition with a Quickness and Precision which distance them the greatest Honor. The Remainder of the Army followed fo good an Example, and were inmediately in a Situation not only to face but to repel the Enemy. The Referve, under the Com- have been fortunate enough to find Water sufficient mand of Major-General Moore, which was on the Right, on the Change of the Polition of the Army, moved on in Column, and covered the Right Flank. The Army continued to advance, pushing the Enemy with the greatest Vigour, and ultimately forcing them to put themselves under the Protection of the fortified Heights which form the principal Defence of Alexandria.

It was intended to have attacked them in this their last Position; for which Purpose the Reserve under the Command of Major-General Moore, which had remained in Column during the whole of the Day, was brought forward, and the Second Line, under the Command of Major-General Hutchinson, marched to the Left across a Part of the Lake Mariotis, with a View to attack the Enemy on both Flanks; but on reconnoitring their Polition, and not being prepared to occupy it after it should be carried, Prudence required that the Troops who had behaved fo hravely, and who were still willing to attempt any Tling, however arduous, should not be exposed to a certain Loss, when the Extent of the Advantage could not be ascertained. They were therefore withdrawn, and now occupy a Pofation with their Right to the Sea, and their Left to the Canal of Alexandria and Lake Mariotis, about a League from the Town of Alexandria.

I have the greatest Satisfaction in saying, that the Conduct of the British and Foreign Troops under my Command is descring of the highest Praise; their Courage and their Discipline have been equally conspicuous.

To all the General Officers I am indebted for their Zeal and Intelligence.

From the Honorable Brigadier General Hope, Adjutant-General, and Lieucenant-Colonel Austruther, Quarter-Maller-General, I have received every Tellimony of Zcal, and the most able Affiltance in the Operations of the Army; and to the other Officers of the General Staff, I feel Obligations.

On the 8th the Arrangements made by Lord Keith, were fuch as to enable us to land at once a Body of Six Thousand men.

The Honorable Captain Cochrane, and those other Captains and Officers of the Royal Navy who were entrufted with the Difembarkation, not only of the Troops, but of the Artillery, Ammunition, Provisions, and Stores of all Kinds, have exerted themselves in such a Manner as to claim the warmest Acknowledgments of the whole Army.
Sir Sidney Smith, and the other Captains and Officers of the Navy under his Command who landed with the Army, have been indefatigable in their Exertions in forwarding the Service on which they are employed.

The Enemy have left a fmall Garrison in Aboukir Caille; it has been necessary to bring up a few Pieces of heavy Artillery, and there is Reason to be-lieve that it will speedily surrender.

Majors Mac Kerras and Fletcher, of the Royal Engineers, who went down in the Penelope Frigate to survey the Coast of Egypt, a short Time before we failed from Marmarice, were unfortunately surprized in a small Boat in Aboukir Bay; the former was killed, and the latter taken Prisoner.

Our Communication with the Fleet is at present kept up by Means of the Lake of Aboukir. We for the Supply of the Army; and we begin to derive fome Supplies from the Country.

I have the Honor to enclose herewith Returns of the Killed and Wounded in the Actions of the 8th and 13th Instant, together with a Return of the Artillery taken from the Enemy on those Days.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

Copy of a Letter from Admiral Lord Keith, K. B.
Commander in Chief of His Majefly's Ships and Veffels in the Mediterranean, to Evan Neapean, Efq; dated on board the Foudroyant, in the Bay of Aboukir, 10th March 1801.

SIR, MY Dispatches of the 22d ult. by the Speed-well, will have acquainted you, for the In-formation of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that the Armament on that Day quitted the Harbour of Marmarice for this Place, which the whole Fleet reached on the 2d Instant, the Turkish Gun Boats and Kaicks excepted, all of which bore up, by Night, for Macri, Cyprus, and other Ports, during the Prevalence of strong Westerly Gales that we encountered on the Paffage.

Too much of the Day of our Arrival here had elapsed, before all the Ships gould get to Anchorage, to admit of the landing being effected before the Approach of Night; and an unfortunate Suc-

The whole Line immediately began to move with great Celerity towards the Beach, between the Caitle of Aboukir and the Estrance of the Sed, under the Direction of the Honorable Captain Cochrane, of His Majelty's Ship the Ajax, affilted by Captains Stevenson, Scott, Larmour, Apthotpe, and Morrison, of the Europa, Stately, Diadem, Druid, and Thisbe, and the respective Agents of Transports, the right Flank being protected by the Cruelle Cutter, and the Dangereufe, and Janissary Gun Vessels, and the Left, by the Entreprenante Cutter, Malta Schooner, and Negresse Gun Vessel, with two Launches of the Fleet on each, armed for the Purpose of supplying the Places of the Turkish Gun Vessels, of whose Service I had been deprived. Captain Sir Sidney Smith of the Tigre, with the Captains Riboleau, Guion, Saville, Burn, and Hiltyar, of the Astrea, Eurus, Experiment, Blonde, and Niger, appointed, with a Detachment of Seamen, to co-operate with the Army, had the Charge of the Launches, with the Field Artillery accompanying the Troops. The Tartarus and Fury were placed in proper Situations for throwing Shot and Shells with Advantage; and the Petterell, Cameleon, and Minorca, were moored as near as possible, with their Broadfides to the Shore.

The Enemy had not failed to avail himfelf of the unavoidable Delays to which we had been exposed, for strengthening the naturally difficult Coast to which we were to approach. The whole Garrison of Alexandria, faid to amount to near three Thoufand Men, reinforced with many fmall Detachments that had been observed to advance from the Rossetta Branch, was appointed for its Defence. Pieces were placed on the most commanding Heights, and in the Intervals of the numerous Sand Hills which cover the Shore, all of which were lined with Musquetry; the Beach on either Wing being flanked with Cannon and Parties of Cavalry held in Readiness to advance.

The Fire of the Enemy was fuccessively opened from their Mortars and Field Pieces, as the Boats. got within their Reach; and as they approached to the Shore the excessive Discharge of Grape-Shot and of Musquetry from behind the Sand-Hills feemed to threaten them with Destruction, while the Castle of Aboukir on the Right Flank maintained a constant and harassing Discharge of large Shot and Shells; but the Ardour of our Officers and Men was not to be damped. No Moment of Hefi-tation intervened. The Beach was arrived at, a Footing obtained; the Troops advanced, and the Enemy forced to relinquish all the advantageous Politions which they had held.

The Boats returned without Delay for the Second Division; and before the Evening the whole Army, with few Exceptions, was landed, with such Articles of Provisions and Stores as required the most immediate Attention.

I refer to the General's Report for the Lofs fuftained by the Army in this dangerous and difficult Service. I enclose the Casualties of the Squadron and Transports, and feel much Satisfaction in conveying to their Lordships my full Testimony to the Merits of all the Officers and Men employed under my Orders on this arduous Occasion.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

22d March, 1801.

HAVING already detailed in my Difpatches of the 1ft, 14th, and 15th Laboratory the 1st, 14th, and 15th Instant, (Nos. 7, 8, and 9.) the various Arrangements that had been made to enable me to earry into Essect His Majesty's Commands, communicated in your Letters of the 14th and 31ft of January, I have how the Hondr to acquaint you, that having been joined on the 16th, at Sr. John's, Antigun, the appointed Rendezvous, by the 3th West India Regiment, from English Harbour, we failed the same Evening, with the Force there collected, confilling of a Detachment of the Royal Artillery, the 3d and 11th Regiments of Foot, and the Sti Weit India Regiment, but owing to the Calms and light Winds that prevailed, we made fo little Progress, as not to arrive at St. Bartholomew's, until the Morning of the 20th, although the Passage is generally made in the Courfe of a few Hours.

Rear Admiral Duckworth, conceiving it might be useful to order the Andromeda from Antigua, with a View to prevent any Vellels communicating with the Island of St. Bartholomew, Captain Dradby was accordingly difpatched on that Service, of which Opportunity I availed myfelf to fend Lieutenant Colonel Shipley, the commanding Engineer, for the Purp de of making Observations, and to discover where a Landing might be made with the least Risk to the Troops. The Report of Lieutenant Colonel Shipley, and Captain Bradby, was very correct, and, had Oceasion required us to Lave acted on their Information, would no doubt Lave proved of very eliential Consequence, in faci-

A Disposition was made for landing on the Morning of the 19th; but being becalmed the Whole of that Day, in Sight of the Island, and thereby lofing the Advantage that would have been derived from a fudden and unexpected Attack, together with the Information we had received by a Vessel lately from St. Bartholomew, that the Governor was unprepared, and indeed poffeffed no Means of Defence, we determined at once to ford in a Summons, which was accordingly done on the Morning of the 20th, and I am happy to acquaint you was followed by the immediate Surrender of the Island.

I have the Honor to transmit to you herewith, for your more particular Information, Copies of the Summons and Capitulation, together with a Return of the Ordnance found in the Island of St. Bartho-

His Majelly's Ship Leviathan, at Sea, SIR, 27th Murch 18d1.

Have the Honor to acquaint you, that the Island of St. Martin furrendered to the British Forces on the 24th Intlant.

It being confidered of much Confequence that the least Delay possible should take place after the Sur-render of St. Bartholomew, every Exertion was made to complete the Arrangements necessary to enable us to leave that Island, which were finally concluded

At the Moment when we were about to fail, the Profelyte from England, with Nine Transports under Convoy, hove in Sight, on which we immediate ly weighed, and joined them about . Ton o'Clock that Night, when we found that One Transport was milling, with Two Hundred Men of the 64th Regiment on board. On the following Day at Noon, we were also joined by the Coromandel, with the 2d West India Regiment.

The Ships of War and the Transports, during the Night of the 23d, drew as near to the Island of St. Martin as appeared confiltent with Safety, and at Daylight the following Morning flood into Little

The Troops having been divided into two Brigades, a Disposition was made for Landing. The First Brigade, under the Command of Brigadier-General Fuller, was composed of the 1st Battalion of the Royals, the 11th Regment, and 2d West India Regiment, and was destined to make an Attack on Fort Chesterfield, near the Town of Marigot, fitnated in the French Quarter of the Island.

The Second Brigade, commanded by Brigadier-General Maitland, confilted of Six Companies of the 3d Regiment, the 64th, and Four Companies of the 8th West India; and was intended for the Attack of Fort Amtterdam, and the Town of Philipfburgh in the Dutch Quarter, a Proportion of Field Artillery being attached to each Brigade.

The Bay fixed on for the Troops to Land in being in the Dutch Quarter, and contiguous to Fort Amsterdam, the 2d Brigade was in confequence landed first, which was effected without Opposition. During this Operation, the Transport arrived with the part of the 64th Regiment, which had been milling, and being ordered to run close in with the Shore, the Men were landed in Time to join their Regiment.

Brigadier-General Maitland, having gained the Heights lowards Fort Amsterdam, was foon op-posed by detached Parties of the Enemy. The 8th, West India Regiment, being principally engaged on those Occasions, was always successful.

It appeared that almoil the whole Force of the Enemy had been drawn to the Dutch Quarter, whereas it was expected that the principal Retitlance would have been made at Fort Chellerfield.

The Enemy, rather than await an Attack from our Troops, which they were led to expect, by our possessing the Heights at no great Distance from the Fort and Town, determined to attack, with a confiderable Part of their Force, one of the Politions which we occupied, and brought out Two Field Pieces with about Three Hundred Men for the Pur pofe.

The Body of our Troops, on which this Attack was made, confilted of Four Companies of the Sixty. Sourth Regiment, under the immediate Command of Lieutenant-Colonel Pakenham, and Two Companies of the 8th West India Regiment, who evinced, on this Occasion, the greatest Courage and Steadings, repulfed and purfued the Enemy, and took Poffession of the Two Field Pieces.

The Los of the Enemy, which they themselves flate to be much more confiderable, was certainly not less than between Fifty and Sixty killed and wounded, which mult appear a great Number when compared with the few Men we had wounded in this

That the 64th, one of the finest Regiments I ever fay, commanded as it was, should have behaved in a distinguished Manner is not surprising; but I have peculiar Satisfaction in being enabled to add, that the Sth West India Regiment, formed within the last Three Years, and composed almost entirely of new Negroes, who never had before feen an Enemy, engaged with a Degree of Gallantry, and behaved in a Manner that would do Honor to any Troops.

After the Attack now mentioned, the Enemy made no further Attempt, but between Four and Five o'Clock in the Afternoon a Communication was opened, and the Capitulation finally concluded by Twelve that Night.

The First Brigade, when landed, proceeded to the French Quarter without Oppolition, and took Poffession of Lee's Hill, which commands Fort Chesterfield, and had prepared to commence an Attack, which was ordered to be made on that Post at Daybreak on the 25th.

The Crews of some Privateers, who formed a confiderable Part of the Enemy's Force, finding the At-tack on our Position had failed, returned to their Ships and put to Sea.

The Regular Troops, to the Number of at least Three Hundred and Twenty, had laid down their Arms before my Departure; and it is probable there were flill more who had not then furrendered.

The Officers of the Navy and the Seamen went through the laborious Tafk of difembarking the Troops and dragging the Guns up steep and rugged Hills, with a Spirit and Cheerfulness highly honorable to themselves and gratifying to those who wit-nessed their Zeal and Exertions. Were I merely to Were I merely to fay that Rear-Admiral Duckworth gave every poffible Affidance, I might be understood only to mean that he did his Duty; an Expression totally inadequate to convey what I feel, as, exclusive of all that can be comprehended under the most extensive Meaning of the Word Duty, his many Acts of Kindnels must be remembered by me with Gratitude, and by every Officer and Soldier ferving on this Expedition.

I have also much Pleasure in bearing Testimony to the Zeal manifested by the Whole of the Troops, whose Conduct was so highly creditable, as to entitle them to my warmest Praise.

It likewife affords me particular Satisfaction to have an Opportunity of expreffing, through this Channel, my Acknowledgments to Brigadiers General Fuller and Maitland, for the Manner in which they conducted the Services entruled to them, and to Lieutenant-Colonel Gledstanes, the Adjutant-General, Lieutenant-Colonel Laye, commanding the Royal Artillery, and Lieutenant-Colonel Shipley, the commanding Engineer, for the unremitting Exertions which they used in their respective Situations, as well as to the Officers commanding the feveral Corps, for the Attention and Alacrity fo emi-neutly confpicuous in the Difeharge of their Duty.

I have the Honor to enclose to you herewith, Copies of the Summous and Articles of Capitulation, on which the Island of Saint Martin has been furrendered to His Majesty, together with a Return of the Ordnance taken Possellion of, and a Return of the wounded.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c. (Signed) THOS. TRIGGE, Lieutenant-General.

Admiralty-Office, May 11, 1801.

NAPTAIN EKINS, late of His Majefly's Ship Amphitrite, arrived last Night with Dispatches from Rear-Admiral Duckworth, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Bar-

The Officers Bearers of this are authorized to | badoes and the Leeward Islands, to Evan Nepean, Efg; Secretary of the Admiralty, of which the fellowing are Copics:

> Leviathan, at Sea, March 27, 1801. HAVING confulted with Lieutenant-General Trigge, on the Subject of the Orders of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, we determined not to wait for the expected Reinforcements, but collect the Troops that the General thought might be employed with Difpatch; and we failed on the 16th, with about One Thousand Five Hun-dred Troops, for the Purpole of attacking the various Islands specified in our Orders, the General and myfelf confidering it most judicious to commence with the weathermost one St. Bartholomew, though by Calms and very variable Winds we were prevented from getting to Grand Saline Bay (our intended Place of Landing) till the Morning of the 20th, when, having prepared every Thing for that Purpole, and placed the Andromeda, L'Unité, and Drake Brig to cover it, the General and myfelf deemed it expedient to prevent Delay, by fending Brigadier-General Fuller, and Captain King of the Leviathan, with a Summons, which, after fome little Hefitation, was accepted, and the Capitulation I transmit, entered into. I then detached the Andromeda with the Alexandria Tender to affift in watching St. Thomas's, when every Exertion was used to land a Garrison, and form such temporary Arrangements as the Urgency of the Service would admit; all of which were effected by the Morning of the 22d. We found here Two Swedish Ships nearly laden with Produce of this Country, a Danish Ship in Ballaft, befides a Variety of finall Craft, Swedish, and Three small French Vessels; and I left Captain Thomas Harvey, in L'Unité, to co-operate with the Commandant of that Island, and at Ten o'Clock A. M. were in the Act of weighing, when Ten Sail were feen from the Matt-Head, I therefore ordered the Drake Brig and L'Eclair Schooner to reconnoire, keeping the Wind, myfelf concluding they were our Troops from England, which the General and myfelf had fent Orders to Barbadoes to follow us after landing their Sick, with Women and Children; this, from light Airs, was not afcertained till Ten o'Clock at Night, when they proved as conjectured, and the Profelyte joined in the Afternoon of the 24th. Upon this Accumulation of Force, the General and mysclf, after some Deliberation, judged it would be highly injurious to His Majesty's Service, and render Saint Bartholomew very unfafe, if we omitted attacking the Island of Saint Martin: We therefore, (though it was not mentioned in our Instructions,) prompted by the Rectitude of our Intentions, decided upon endeavouring to reduce it, and at Midnight of the 22d hore away for that Purpose; but the unprecedented Variableness of the Winds prevented our getting there till Daylight of the 24th; and on the Afternoon of the 23d the Coromandel joined with the 2d West India Regiment, when, having placed Captain Fowke in the Profelyte, with the Drake Brig in Coles Bay to cover the Landing under the Direction of Captain Ekins of the Amphitrite, (who had been fick at Barbadoes, but joined me in the Profelyte, and handlomely volunteered this Service,) which commenced at Half past Eight o'Clock; and with his judicious Arrangements, the Second Brigade of near One Thousand Five Hundred Men ! under Brigadier-General Maitland, were on Shore with their Field Pieces, and One Hundred Seamen by Eleven o'Clock, as was the First Brigade of One Thousand Eight Hundred, under Brigadier-General Fuller, by Two o'Clock, with their Field Pieces, and One Hundred Seamen; the Second Brigade directly proceeded on to take the Heights in the Approach to the Fown of Philipsburgh, which was quickly effected, though not without fome fmart skirmishing, which afterwards brought on a short Action, in which some Companies of the 64th, under Lieut. Col. Pakenhant, and Two Companies of the Eighth West India Regiment, displayed great Gallantry; beat the Enemy, and took Two Field Pieces; at this Time Brigadier General Fuller, with the First Brigade, marched on to take the Heights above Fort Chefterfield, or Maregot, where we had Reafon to expect the greatest Resistance; but the former Check (in which the Enemy lost from Fifty to Sixty killed and wounded) evinced that Oppofition could only lead to Destruction; and they embraced a verbal Summons (fent in by Brigadier General Maitland, at Five o'Clock) to propose their Terms at Nine; when Lieutenant General Trigge and Self, being on the Spot, the Capitulation was tigned and exchanged by Midnight of the 24th, of which I transmit a Copy for their Lordship's Information. At the Commencement of the Attack we observed in Great Bay, Two Privateer Brigs, of Twelve Guns each, and a Schooner of the same Porce, with a Merchant Ship, Brig, and Nine or 'Yen fmall Craft; and as I confidered them likely to attempt getting off in the Courfe of the Night, if it was found necessary to surrender, I ordered the Hornet and Fanny armed Brig, to work up to Great Bay, to prevent fuch Attempt from fueceeding, and at Sunfet lent the Drake to aid on that Service; but, unfortunately, the Two First did not get far enough to Windward to fulil my Intention, by which Means One of the Brigs and the Schooner got out, with a few small Vessels, Live of which were taken; but I am to lament the Brig and Schooner getting away, after a Chace of Twenty-tour Hours, by the Hornet and Fanny. We found eremaining in the Bay, One Brig Privateer of Twelve Guns, an English captured Ship, a Merchant Poig, Four small Schooners, and a Sloop; the Particulars of which my Ti.es would not allow me to collect, as I began to enbark the Troops, Ordnares, &c. &c. the next Morning, the 25th, and failed for Saint Thomas's the Afternoon of the 20th, leaving the Profelyte, Hornet, and Drake, to affait in the Arrangements necessary for the Security of the Island, and Two Transports to embark the Garrison in, which confifted of between Three and Four Hundred, befides nearly a fimilar Number which got away in the Brig, &c.

I have ordered the Profelyte to relieve L'Unité, keeping with her the Drake for the affilling Protec-tion of the Two Islands, and L'Unité to conduct the Prifoners to Martinique, arranging and getting ready to convoy the Trade home.

I cannot conclude this Account of our successful Proceedings, for their Lordships' Information, without paying that grateful Tribute which is due to Lieutenant-General Trigge for his kind Support and Concurrence in every Inflance, and for his anxious Endeavours to preferve that particular Harmony and Unanimity between the Army and Navy, which mult always contribute to the Success of every Undertaking. I should not do Justice to the Officers and Men serving under my Command, if I was, to omit affuring their Lordships they have performed the haraffing and laborious Service they have been employed in highly to my Satisfaction, and with an Alacrity characterilite of British Seamen; and I have the Honor to be, Sir, &c. &c. &c. J. T. DUCKWORTH.

By Lieutenant-General Thomas Trigge and Rear Admiral John Thomas Duckworth, Commanders in Chief of His Britannic Ma jefty's Land and Sea Forces employed at the Windward and Leeward Hands, &c. &c. &c.

THE King, our Maßer, having viewed with the deepell Concern the unjust Combination lately entered into between the Courts of Sweden, Denmark, and Ruffia, to support the Principles of an Armed Neutrality, contrary to the Law of Nations and the politive Stipulation of Treaties, His Majesty, therefore, feels himself called upon to adopt fuch Measures, as a Conduct fo hotile to the just and ancient Privileges of the British Flag requires, on his Part, for the Maintenance and Pre-fervation of the hest Rights of His People, and in Support of the most foleran Treatics, thereby violated, and to confider, though with the greatest Reluctanee, those Courts as Enemies of Great Britain.

Feeling that Refiltance on your Part would only tend to increase the Calamities of War, which it is our most earnest Defire to alleviate, we have sent this Summous by Brigadier-General Fuller, of the Hand Forces, and Captain King, of the Royal Navy, requiring you to furreader the Hand of Saint Bartholoniew, together with all Ships and Veffels, Stores, and Public Property of every Description.

Knowing how ardently it is the Defire of our Royal Mafter to avert the Sufferings of Individuals, and it being no less our own Disposition and Wish to soften their Distresses, we take this Opportunity to declare, that the private Property of the Inhahitants will be respected, as well as whatever belongs to the Subjects of the United States of America; and in case of immediate Submission, that the Laws, Customs, and Religious Usages of the Island shall not be infringed.

own-We, in order the more certainly to prevent any Caufe of Milunderstanding on the prefent Occafion, have taken this Opportunity to express our just Expediation, that the Subjects of America, at prefent refiding in the Island of St. Bartholomew, will not lend themselves to my collusives Transactions, with a View of preventing fuch Property from coming into Possession of the Forces under our Com-mand, as of Right ought to be forseited to the Crown of Great Britain. As whatever Reluctance we might feel in adopting a Measure so extremely dilagrecable to us, it nevertheless would be our Duty, not only to resist, in every inflance, such unbecoming Proceedings, but be the Means of obliging us to act against whoever might be concerned in a Transaction of fo improper a Nature, in a Manner which we would ever wish to avoid. At the Time of making this Communication, we hope not to be understood as conceiving any Thing of the Nature now alluded to, at all likely to occur. We feel fatisfied of the contrary, and have noticed it merely as a Measure of Precaution to those who might otherwife have been unwarily led into a Step, without being aware of the Confequences attendant.

Leviathan, Saint Thomas, March 30, 1801. SIR, HAving had the Honor of stating to you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the successful Proceedings of this Armament to the Twenty-seventh, A have now surther to add, that we arrived off this Island at Day! light of the Twenty-eighth, having previously concerted with the General the Arrangement for landing at Black Point Bay, about Three Miles to the Wellward of the Town; but from the Wind throwing off the Land we were not able to obtain Anchorage till Noon, when I directed Captain Bradby in the Andromeda, with the Alexandria Tender, to place thenifelves as close to the Beach as the Water would admit to cover the Landing; which Service was ably executed : I also ordered the Southampton, Diana, and Amphitrite, (which had been previously directed here to prevent Succour from being thrown in,) to anchor close off the Town, to be in Readincis to attack the Forts, if requilite. This Service per-formed, and the Troops all ready to land, Licu-tenant-General Trigge and Self were of Opinion it would promote His Majedy's Service to furmion the Island, which was fent by Brigadier-General Maitland, and Captain King of the Leviathan, when a Capitulation was agreed on for this Island, Saint Johns, and its Dependencies (with the Delay galy of the Governor being permitted to fend Of ficers to afcertain that our Force was formidable as reprefented;) and Yester by Moraing we tack Possession of the Ports, &c. since when I have been constantly employed in landing a Garriton, and forming temperary Regulations, to move for our next Object Santa Cruz this Evening, that my Time will not admit of my giving their Lordships an exact Detail of the Velicls in Harbour, but there was One Man of War Brig of Eighteen Guns which appears a very fine Vessel, and fit for His Majesty's Service. Herewith I fend a Copy of the Capitulation .-This, with my other Dispatch of the Twenty-seventh, I forward by my First Lientenant, Charles Marshall Gregory, an Officer of great Merit and Activity, who has been recently employed as acting Captain of the Amphitrite, and to whom I must refer their Lordships for further Particulars; and I have the Honor to be. SIR, Have the Honor to inform you, that, after the Alexandria, April 5th, 1801. Affair of the 13th of March, the Army took a Position about Four Miles from Alexandria, having a fandy Plain in their Front, the Sea on their Right, and the Canal of Alexandria (at prefent dry) and the Lake of Aboukir on their Left. In this Position we remained without any material Occurrence taking Place till the 21st of March, when the Enemy attacked us with nearly the whole of their collected Force, amounting probably to Eleven or Twelve Thousand Men. Of Fourteen Demi-Brigades of Infantry, which the French have in this Country, Twelve appear to have been engaged, and all their Cavalry, with the Exception of One Regi-

The Enemy made the following Disposition of their Army

General Lauusse was on their Left, with Four Demi-Brigades of Infantry, and a confiderable Body of Cavalry, commanded by General Roize; Generals Friant and Rampon were in the Centre, with . Five Demi-Brigades; General Regnier on the Right, with Two Demi-Brigades and Two Regiments of Cavalry; General D'Estain commanded the Advanced Guard, consisting of One Demi-Brigade, fome Light Troops, and a Detachment of Cavalry.

The Action commenced about an Hour before Daylight, by a falfe Attack on our Left, which was under Major-General Ciaddock's Command, where they were foon repulfed. The most vigorous Efforts of the Enemy were however directed against our Right, which they used every possible Exertion to turn. The Attack on that Point was begun with great Impetuolity by the French Infantry, fultained by a ftrong Body of Cavalry, who charged in Co-lumn. They were received by our Troops with equal Ardour, and the utmost Steadiness and Discipline. The Contest was unufually obstinate; the Enemy were twice repulfed, and their Cavalry were repeatedly mixed with our Infantry. They at length retired, leaving a prodigious Number of Dead and Wounded on the Field.

While this was passing on the Right, they at-tempted to penetrate our Centre with a Column of Infantry, who were also repulsed, and obliged to retreat with Lofs. The French, during the whole of the Action, refused their Right. They pushed forward, however, a Corps of Light Troops, supported by a Body of Infantry and Cavalry, to keep our Left in Check, which certainly was, at that Time, the weakelt Part of our Line.

We have taken about Two Hundred Priloners (not wounded); but it was impossible to purfue our Victory, on Account of our Inferiority in Cavalry, and because the French had lined the opposite Hills with Cannon, under which they retired. We also have fuffered contiderably; few more severe Actions have ever been fought, considering the Numbers engaged on both Sides. We have fultained an irreparable Lofs in the Person of our never sufficiently to be lamented Commander in Chief, Sir Ralph Abercromby, who was mortally wounded in the Action, and died on the 28th of March. I believe he was wounded early, but he concealed his Situation from those about him, and continued in the Field, giving his Orders with that Coolness and Perspicuity, which had ever marked his Character, till long after the Action was over, when he fainted through Weakness and Loss of Blood. Were it permitted for a Soldier to regret any One who has fallen in the Service of his Country, I might be excused for lamenting him, more than any other Person; but it is some Consolation to those who tenderly loved him, that as his Life was honorable, fo was his Death glorious. His Memory will be recorded in the Annals of his Country-will be facred to every British Soldier, and embalmed in the Recollection of a grateful Posterity.

It is impossible for me to do Justice to the Zeal of the Officers and to the Gallantry of the Soldiers of this Army. The Referve, against whom the prin- 1 of Battalion of the 3d Regiment .- 1 Officer, 3 Sercipal Attack of the Enemy was directed, conducted themselves with unexampled Spirit. They refisted the Impetuofity of the French Infantry, and repulfed feveral Charges of Cavalry. Major-General Moore was wounded at their Head, though not dangeroufly. I regret, however, the temporary Abfence from the Army of this highly valuable and meritorious Officer, whose Counsel and Co-operation would be so highly necessary to me at this Moment. Brigadier-General Oakes was wounded nearly at the fame Time, and the Army has been deprived of the Service of an excellent Officer. The 28th and 42d Regiments acted in the most distinguished and bril-liant Manner. Colonel Paget, an Officer of great Promise, was wounded at the Head of the former Regiment; he has fince, though not quite recovered, returned to his Duty.

Brigadier-General Stuart and the Foreign Brigade supported the Reserve with much Promptness and Spirit: indeed it is but Justice to this Corps to fay, that they have, on all Occasions, endeavoured to emulate the Zeal and Spirit exhibited by the British Troops, and have perfectly succeeded. Major-General Ludlow deferves much Approbation for his Conduct when the Centre of the Army was attacked: under his Guidance the Guards conducted themselves in the most cool, intrepid, and soldierlike Manner; they received very effectual Support by a Movement of the Right of General Coote's Brigade. Brigadier-General Hope was wounded in the Hand; the Army has been deprived of the Service of a most active, zealous, and judicious

The Lofs of the Enemy has been great; it is cal-culated at upwards of Three Thousand killed, wounded, and taken Prisoners. General Roize, who commanded the Cavalry, which fuffered confiderably, was killed in the Field. Generals Lanuffe and Bodet are fince dead of their Wounds. I have been informed that feveral other General Officers, whose Names I do not know, have been either killed or wounded.

I cannot conclude this Letter without folemnly affuring you, that, in the ardnous Contest in which we are at present engaged, His Majesty's Troops in Egypt have faithfully discharged their Duty to their Country, and nobly upheld the Fame of the British Name and Nation.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

J. H. HUTCHINSON. (Signed)

Herewith I have the Honor to enclose a Lift of the Killed and Wounded on the 21fl of March.

Copy of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Duckworth, Commander in Chirf of His Majefly's Ships and Feft's at the Leceward Iflands, to Evan Kefran, Efg. dated Fort Royal, 9th February 1801. SIR,

APTAIN Matfon, of the Dapline, informs me, by Letter of the 22d Ultimo, that on the 16th, observing some Coallers near the Shore, under Convoy of a Schooner, he detail of Licentenant M'Kenzie, with the Boats of the Clane, under Lieutenant Peachy; but on their approaching, all fucceeded in getting under the Cover of the Batteries at Baffe Terre, One excepted, which anchored near Vieux Forte: this, in the Courfe of the Night, Lieutenant 14 Kenzie boarded and brought off under a heavy Cannonade. The next Morning they observed from the Saints, the above-mentioned Schooner work up in Shore, and anchor at Trois Rivieres, covered by a Battery, and flanked by Two others. Notwithstanding those Difficulties, Lieutenant McKenzie, with Lieutenant Peachy, volunteered to bring her out, which Captain Matfon was at last prevailed on to accord to; but, from Want of Wind, this gallant Intention was not attempted until after Sunrife on the 18th, when Mr. McKenzie, in a Manner which exceeds all Fraise, ran the Schooner on board, though a superior Enemy, and evidently prepared for him, when Lientenant Peachy and McKenzie entered with Thirty Men, and, after a Contest of a Quarter of an Hour, succeeded in bringing her off under a most tremendous Fire from the Batteries, she being moored to close to the Shore as to have a Stern Hawfer fast on the Beach. In this Contest, the French Captain, his First, Second Lieutenant, and Six Men, were wounded; befules One killed and Two drowned. In the Garland Tender, One Seamen and One Marine killed; the Serjeant of Marines and Two Seamen, wound-ed:—though I was not an Observer of this Exploit, which appears to me among the first Traits of Gallantry in the course of the War, their Lordfhips will be able to appreciate the Value of Lientenant M'Kenzie's Conduct, which, I must further tenant M'Kenzie's Conduct, which, I muit further add, is, in its probable Confequences, of the greatelt Moment to the Trade of our Illinds, as L'Eclair fails rapidly, and, when fully armed, will carry Twelve Six-Pounders, befides Twenty One and a Half-Pounder Brass Guns mounted as Swivels. She was in her Way to Point Petre to complete having left Rochfort armed only with Four Brass Four-Pounders, the Twenty finall Guns, and Fifty Men.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

SIR, Lady Ann Hired Armed Brig, off Flant-SIR, borongh-Head, May 16, 1801.

I Have the Honor to acquaint you, that I this Morning, at Eight A. M., after a Chace and running Fight of Seventeen Hours, captured the Victoire Cutter French Privateer, mounting Fourteen long Four-Pounders, and manned with Seventyfive Men, Jean Beville, Commander, a Licutenant in the French Navy, (the Victoire was late His Ma-jefty's Hired Cutter the Active,) failed from Dun-kirk Six Days lince, and had made no Captures; when I first gave Chace to him at Three P. M. on the 15th Instant, close in with Flamborough-Head, the Cutter was under a Press of Sail after several loaded Ships, which I have the Pleasure to reslect I prevented him from capturing. I cannot speak too highly of the spirited and good Conduct of the Lady Ann's Company in general: The Two Veffels being fo crowded with Prifoners, and feveral of my People being very weak and fickly, with the Wind blowing strong from the S. W., I think it my Duty to make for the first Port to land the Prifoners, who are far too numerous for our Ship's Company after manning the Prize; I truit and hope my Conduct will meet your Approbation.

I am, with great Refpect, Sr, &c.

JOHN LAKE.

SIR, Enclose, for the Information of the Lords Comimifioners of the Admiralty, a Letter from the Honorable Captain Herbert, of His Majesty's Ship Amelia, giving an Account of his having taken a French Privateer Brig called the Heureux.

W. CORNWALLIS. 1 am, &c.

Amelia, at Son, May 10, 1801. I Have the Honor to inform you, that this Even-ing, having just anchored close to the Mouth of the Loire, I perceived a Man of War Brig Handing in, who, upon making us out, tacked with all Sail from us:—as Night was just fetting in, and no Time could be loft if the was to be taken, I flipped and made Sail after her, and, after a Chace of about Four Hours, captured her. She proved to be the Heureux Privateer Brig of Soint Maloes, of Fourteen Guns and Seventy-cight Men, out from that Port Forty-one Days, and had taken nothing; the Want of Copper at Saint Maloes, when she was sitting out, probably put her into our Hands fo foon. I am. &c. CHARLES HERBERT.

The Honorable Admiral Cornwaliis, Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Griffith, of His Majefty's Ship Diamond, to Evan Nepean, Efg; dated Plymouth-Sound, the 9th Inflant.

SIR,

N the 5th of March I went in quest of a French Ship Privateer, supposed to be cruifing about the Island of Palma; on the Morning of the 6th, I fell in with her between that Island and Teneriffe, and, after an arduous Chace, obliged her, in confequence of the Damage the fullatined from our Fire, to run on Shore on the North Side of the Island of Gomera, where she very foon Lecame a Wreck.

Having Occasion to land some Prisoners, I fent an Officer in for that Purpose with a Flag of Truce, who was info med by the Captain of the Privateer, that her Nane was La Mouche, of Eighteen Guns and One Hundre! and Sixty Men, belonging to Bourdeaux, the Destruction of this Vessel gave me particula: Satisfaction, as the had been a most active and fuecefsful Cruifer in those Seas. On the 12th of the time Month, off the N. E. End of Teneriffe, we captured a fmall Spanish Polacre, laden in Part with fundry Merchandife.

I am, &c. E. GRIFFITH.

Whitehall, May 30, 1801. HE following Addresses of the General Asfembly of the Church of Scotland having been transmitted by the Earl of Leven and Melvill, His Majesty's High Commissioner, to His Grace the Duke of Portland, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, have been by him prefented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

May it pleafe your Majefy,

V E have received, with the most fincere Respect and Gratitude, the very gracious Letter with which your Majesty has been pleased to honor this Meeting of the General Affembly of the Church of Senfible that it is our peculiar Duty to provide for the Preservation of pure Religiou, and rememhering that the Advancement of Picty, and the Practice of every Christian Duty, at all Times de-mand from us the greatest Assiduity and Care, we feel that these Considerations are entitled to more than ordinary Attention, when Notions and Principles, equally defluctive of the temporal and eternal Welfare of those who entertain them, have been industriously propagated amongst all Orders and Degrees of Men. These Notions and Principles, we beg Leave to affure your Majelly, it is our firm Purpose sleadily and uniformly to oppose; and we hope that our Endeavours, combining with the Elforts of all to whom the Interests of Christianity are facred, and aided by the Bleffing of the Molt High, may fill be effectual to expose their evil Tendency, and cheek their Progress. In Times like the present, when the Enemies of Religion (like the Enemies of focial Order) are always on the Watch, and will not fast to profit by every Advantage which Lukewarmnels or Inadvertence may afford them, we feel that the Duties incumbent on us are unufually difficult and momentous. We are convinced, that any Relaxation of those Exertions, which Divine Providence has hitherto crowned with Success, may be productive of the most fatal and ruinous Effects; and, acting under the Influence of this Conviction, we shall Rudy to afford to the Friends of Piety and good Morals every Protection which can refult from the vigilant Discharge of the important Duties which your Majetty has fo carneftly recommended to our Attention.

We are encouraged to apply ourfelves, with the most unwearied Zeal and Affeluity, to the Accounplithment of this great Object, by the Confidence which your Majetly is pleased to repose in us: And while we have a proper Senfe of the Difficulties with which the Friends of Religion and good Order have to contend, we are grateful to Almighty God that we are bleffed with a Sovereign whose Example and Authority are uniformly employed to enforce the Sanctions of Religion, and give Weight to the Admonitions of its Teachers.

We truft, that both as Individuals watching over the People under our Care, and as an Affembly confulting for the general Interest of the Church of Scotland, we shall ever maintain that facred Sense of religious Obligation, that loyal Attachment to your Majetty's Person and Government, that tender Concein for the Welfare of the People committed to our Charge, and that Spirit of Christian Love and Charity towards each other, which have hitherto recommended us to your Royal Protection, and which your Majesty has condefcended to mention with Approbation.
We rely with entire Confidence on your Majesty's gracious Affurance, that the just Rights and Privileges of the Church of Scotland are Objects of your especial Care; and that it is your Resolution to maintain them unimpaired: That your Majesty has deigned to admonish us with such affectionate Zeal, of the various and important Duties incumbent on us, we confider as a renewed Proof of that warm Concern for the Interests of Religion, and the Profperity of your People, which has rendered your Majesty so justly dear to all good Men. We are sensible that on the Manner in which these Duties are discharged, the Welfare of the Establishment, the Interests of civil Society, and the Influence of Religion, must in a great Measure depend: and we take the Liberty to affare your Majeffy, that both Ly our Precepts and our Fxample, we shall ever study to promote the Interests of Religion and Virtue, and to diffuse among the People under our Care Sentiments of Attachment to our happy Constitution, Loyalty to your Majesty's Person and Government, and Zeal for the Public Good.

The Representation of your Royal Perfer in our General Affemblies we regard with the highest Re spect as the Symbol of that Union between Church and State, which tends to give Stability to both. We receive, as a Teilimony of your paternal Regard for the Interests of the Church of Scotland, the Appointment of the Earl of Leven and Mclvill as your Majefty's Commissioner in this Assembly: his approved Loyalty to your Majesty, his warm Zeel for the Cause of Religion, his hereditary Attach ment to the Church of Scotland, and his tried Fidelity in the High Office with which your Majesty had again been pleafed to invest him, give us the fullest ! Confidence that we shall continue to receive from his faithful Services the most effectual Co-operation and Support in promoting the Two great Ends of Religion, the Glory of God, and the Welfare of Mankind.

Your Majesty's Donation of One Thousand Pounds, for the Propagation of Christian Knowledge in the Highlands and Islands of Scotland, we have received with the most sincere Gratitude; and it shall be our Care to employ this Mark of your Royal Munificence for promoting, in the most efficacious Manner, the pious Purpole for which it is bestowed.

That Almighty God, the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ may protect your Majesty's Perfon, and prolong your Reign; that He may blefs the Oueen, the Prince and Princess of Wales, and all the Royal Family; that He may direct your Councils, and prosper your Administration; that He may continue with us the inestimable Advantages which we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and equitable Government, and transmit them as an Inheritance to future Generations; and that after a long and happy Reign over a free, a loyal, and a religious People, He may receive you into those Mansions where the just inherit an unfading Crown, are the fervent Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty, Your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal Subjects,

The Ministers and Elders, met in this General Affembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by William Ritchie, Moderator. Edinburgh, May 23, 1801.

May it please your Majessy,
WE, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, met together in the General Affembly, beg Leave to approach your Throne with the warmest Sentiments of Thankfulness to God, and of Affection to your Majefly, which your Recovery from a late dangerous Sickness can raise in the Minds of dutiful Subjects who have to long enjoyed the Bleffings of your mild and auspicious Administration.

It is with much Satisfaction that we can affore your Majesty of the steady Loyalty and Attachment of the great Body of your Majesty's Subjects in this Part of the United Kingdom to your Majefty's Person and Government, of the strong Sen-fation of Alaim which they selt on your Majesty's late Illness, and their unfeigned Joy on your Restoration to Health. At the same Time we gladly bear Testimony to their patient Endurance of all the Hardships of the late uncommon Scareity, which could be equalled only by the generous Exertions of the fuperior Ranks for their Relief.

When we confider the unprecedented State of War and Defolation, of Fear and Alarm into which Europe has been thrown by the daring Ambition and unjust Usurpations of France, the repeated and audacious Attempts she has made to corrupt the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects in their Principles of Religion and Loyalty, and the implacable Rage with which she has perlisted in her Enmity to the British Empire, we contemplate, with the highest Admiration, the Steadiness and Magnanimity of your Majetty's Councils and Conduct amidst the Wreck of so many States, and we return Thanks to Almighty God for having inspired your Majesty with fuch unshaken Fortitude and persevering Wifdom.

Amidst the fplendid Atchievements of your Majefly's Reign, permit us to fay that we admire and rejoice in none more than in your most fortunate Completion of a Legislative Union between Great Britain and Ireland,-a Meafure of State fo long wished for with Anxiety by the Wife, and which, whether we consider its Magnitude, the Difficulty of its Accomplishment, or the great and important Effects it is likely to produce, must stand recorded in the Annals of the World as a Master-piece of human Policy, and a lasting Monument of your Majesty's paternal Wisdom. The Experience which your Majefty's Subjects in this Part of the United Kingdom have had, for nearly a Century past, of the happy Confequences of a fimilar Measure, entitles them to look forward with joyful Expectation to no distant Period, when the United Empire in general, and the neighbouring Island in particular, shall reap the full Fruits of your Majesty's wife and magnanimous Counfels.

While we congratulate your Majesty on having fo happily encreased the Energy and Security of your Dominions by this memorable Act of Union, we rejoice in having, at the same Time, an Opportunity of expressing our fervent Gratitude to Almighty God for the Success with which he has crowned your Majesty's Arms. We consider the Victories atchieved in the Baltic and in Egypt as having added new Splendour to the Conduct and Valour of your Majetty's Naval and Military Forces; and we truit that, by the Bleffing of Heaven, they may be the Means of opening the Eyes of those Nations who, deluded or overawed, have tamely yielded to the haughty Mandates of an ambitious and an arrogant Power, of terminating speedily the Horrors of War, and of leading to a General Peace, which may secure the just Rights of contending Nations, and reflore to the World, Concord and Tranquillity.

Your Majesty, we humbly hope, will not consider it as unbecoming or unfeafonable, if we mingle with our Joy for the Victory in Egypt our Regret for the Death of Sir Ralph Abercromby, the good and gallant Hero under whom it was atchieved. We unite with the Rest of our Fellow-Subjects in feeling that by his Death your Majefly's Service and Kingdom have fultimed a fignal Lofs. But this General Affembly has, at the fame Time, peculiar Motives to indulge a tender Interest in his Fate, as one who was a Member of our Church, and whofe Name flands on the Roll of our prefent Affembly. The Nation will raife a Monument to his Valour; it is our melancholy Duty to record and attest to Posterity his Virtues.

That Almighty God, the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, may protect your Majesty's Person, direct your Councils, and render your Administration prosperous; that He may bless our gracious Queen, their Royal Highneffes the Prince and Princels of Wales, and all the Royal Family; nd that, after you have reigned long, with Felicity and Wildom over a free, grateful, and happy fame shall have been slamped with any Stamp of a higher People, He may bestow on you that Crown of Value, though of a different Denomination than is re-Rightcoufness that fadeth not away, are the earnest Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty, Your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal Subjects,

The Ministers and Elders met in this General Affembly of the Church of

To His Excellency Thomas Dezey, Vice-Commander of the Island Saba.

Downing-Street, June 2, 1801.

A Letter, of which the following is a Copy, having been humbly submitted to His Majefty by the undermentioned Officers, who ferved in the Detachment of His Majesty's Fisteenth Regiment of Light Dragoons in the Action of Villers en Couché, near Cambray, on the 24th Day of April 1794, His Majesty has been graciously pleased to grant to each of them His Royal Licence and Permission to accept the Rank of Knight of the Imperial Military Order of Maria Therefa, and bear the Infignia thereof; the same having been conferred upon them by the Emperor of Germany, in Testimony of the high Sense which His Imperial Majesty entertained of their distinguished Conduct upon that Occasion.

Major William Aylett, now Lieutenant-Colonel in the Army.

Captain Robert Pocklington, late Major of 15th Dragoons.

Captain Edward Michael Ryan, now Major in the Army.

Lieutenant Thomas Granby Calcraft, Lieutenant-

Colonel of 3d Dragoon Guards. Lieutenant William Keir, Major of 6th Dragoon Guards.

Lieutenant Charles Burrell Blount, late Captain of 15th Light Dragoons.

Cornet Edward Gerald Butler, now Major of 87th

Regiment of Foot. Cornet Robert Thomas Wilson, now Major in Hompesch's Regiment of mounted Riflemen.

Copy of a Letter from his Excellency Lord Minto, His Majefly's Envoy Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary at the Court of Vienna, to Lieutepant-Colonel William Aylett.

Vienna, November 7, 1800. Have received from his Excellency Baron Thugut Eight Croffes of the Order of Maria Therefa, which the Emperor has been pleafed to confer on yourfelf and Seven other Officers undernamed, of the 15th Regiment of Light Dragoons, who diftinguished themselves in a most gallant Action, near Villers en Couché, on the 24th of April 1794.

His Imperial Majesty had already testified the high Sense he entertained of the brilliant and important Service which the Regiment performed on that Occasion, by presenting the Officers engaged with a Medal, struck for the Purpose of commemorating that diflinguished Action, and affording to those who schieved it a lasting Testimony of his Approbation and Gratitude. It was deemed at the Time worthy of the Cross of Maria Therefa; but, at that Period, a Doubt was entertained, whether this Order could be conferred on Foreigners: that Difficulty being now removed, His Imperial Majesty avails himself with Pleasure of the Oceasion to evince his high Esteem for the Regiment, as well as his Regard for the Individuals, by invefting with this diffinguished Order of Merit Gentlemen who have proved themselves so worthy to wear it.

In transmitting to you, Sir, these Crosses, to be distributed to the Officers for whom they are deftined, I cannot omit the Opportunity of expressing the Satisfaction I have experienced from the Share which my Situation here has afforded me in a Tranfaction which, while it does Honor to the Liberality of His Imperial Majefly, and throws fo much Luftre on the Corps, and on those who are immediately concerned, reflects, at the fame Time, Credit on the Country to which they belong.

I have the Honor to be,

Sir, your obedient, humble Servant. (Signed) MINTO.

Downing-Street, June 29, 1801.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is a Copy, has been this Day received from the Earl of Elgin, by the Right Honorable Lord Hawkefbury, His Majefty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.

Copy of a Letter from Lord Elgin to Lord Hawkefbury, dated Conflantinople, May 23, 1801. MY LORD.

A N Officer is arrived from the Capitan Pashà with the Intelligence that General Hutchinfon had marched from Rosetta on the 8th Instant with Four Thousand British Troops, in Company with a Corps of Turks of equal Force under the Command of the Capitan Pashà, and on the 9th attacked the French near Rahmanich. The Enemy were driven in; and in the Course of the Night they retired towards Cairo, having left a small Garrison in the Entrenchments of Rahmanich. On the 10th, the Fort surrendered, and the Combined Force then proceeded towards Cairo, having concerted their Movements with the Grand Vizir, who was at El Hanka, a Position Four Leagues distant from Cairo, in a North-East Direction. Our Loss at Rahmanich is stated not to exceed Thirty Men.

The Turkish Officer reports that a Reinforcement of Three Thousand British Troops had arrived at Aboukir about the 6th of May.

I have the Honor, &c.
